Sponsorship Form for Temporary Entry

Supporting information for a visitor visa, work visa or student visa application

Who can be a sponsor?

To be a sponsor you must be:

- a New Zealand citizen or the holder of a New Zealand residence class visa (if you are the holder of a resident visa that is subject to conditions under section 49(1) of the Immigration Act 2009, you are not eligible to be a sponsor), or
- an organisation, including New Zealand registered companies, incorporated societies, and charitable trusts, or
- a government agency, including government departments and crown entities.

Supporting your partner

If you want to support your partner (whether married, in a civil union or a de facto partnership) to come to New Zealand, you must complete the Form for Partners Supporting Partnership-Based Temporary Entry Applications (INZ 1146). Depending on your partner's circumstances, you may also be required to financially sponsor them. The immigration officer will let you know if this is the case.

Requirements for specific sponsors

Organisations and government agencies can sponsor someone applying for:

- a visitor visa, or
- a student visa, or
- a work to residence visa under Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports), or
- a work visa under Foreign Crew of Fishing Vessels.

If you are a New Zealand citizen or resident sponsoring a student, you must be a relative or a friend of the student.

If you are sponsoring a work to residence visa, you must complete the form Talent (Arts, Culture and Sports) Sponsorship Form (INZ 1091).

If you are sponsoring a work or resident visa under the Religious Worker Temporary Entry or Residence instructions, you must complete the form Sponsorship form for Religious Workers (INZ 1190).

Sponsor's responsibilities

When you agree to be a sponsor, you undertake and agree to:

- make sure the sponsored person has financial support for the duration of their stay (maintenance costs like food, clothing and health care – things necessary for their health and welfare while in New Zealand), and
- make sure the sponsored person has suitable accommodation for the duration of their stay (whether providing it directly or paying for it), and
- guarantee to provide the cost of return airfare for the sponsored person, if they do not have the means to pay themselves (or refuse to pay for it), and
- guarantee to provide the costs associated with the sponsored person's deportation if they are deported (costs like locating, detaining and maintaining the person, as well as travel costs), and
- (optional undertaking) guarantee to provide the cost of maternity health services in New Zealand if the sponsored person is pregnant and intending to give birth in New Zealand.

When you agree to be a sponsor, you are responsible for the sponsored person from the day they arrive in New Zealand until the day they get a new visa with a different sponsor or no sponsor, or the day they leave, whether they are on a valid visa or in New Zealand unlawfully. You cannot withdraw your sponsorship. If you sponsor a multiple entry visa, you are responsible every time they are in New Zealand with that sponsored visa.

Evidence you must provide

You must provide evidence:

- that you are a New Zealand citizen or residence class visa holder, or
- that you are a registered company, incorporated society or charitable trust,
- that you have sufficient funds for the maintenance of the sponsored person for the duration of their intended stay in New Zealand (unless they are providing their own funds),
- that you have sufficient funds to pay for the sponsored person's accommodation, or if you are providing accommodation directly, evidence that you own or have a rental agreement for the property where the sponsored person will stay while in New Zealand (unless they are paying for their own accommodation),
- that you have sufficient funds to pay for the return travel of the sponsored person (unless they are providing their own airfare or their own funds to cover return travel),
- (optional undertaking) that you have funds of at least NZ$9,000 available to pay for the cost of maternity health services in New Zealand if the sponsored person is pregnant and intending to give birth in New Zealand.

Note: If the sponsored person is providing some of the costs included in sponsorship themselves (such as a prepaid airfare, travellers cheques, etc), evidence of those must be included with their application and the sponsorship form. If what they provide is not sufficient for their needs, you will be responsible for providing the rest of the costs.

If you hold an approval in principle to recruit foreign fishing crew you are only required to submit a copy of the approval in principle letter as evidence that you meet your sponsorship undertakings.

What happens if you do not honour your sponsorship?

If you fail to carry out the responsibilities listed above (a breach of your sponsorship undertakings), the sponsored person will be in breach of their visa conditions and may become liable for deportation.

If you fail to carry out the responsibilities listed above, and the sponsored person incurs costs to the New Zealand Government or a third party to cover any part of their maintenance, accommodation or return travel (or deportation), you will be responsible for repaying those costs.

If you fail to repay the costs incurred by the sponsored person, a debt for the amount of those costs will then be due to the New Zealand Government or the third party. This debt may be enforced against you in the New Zealand courts. This debt remains your responsibility until it is repaid, even if the sponsored person is no longer in New Zealand, is in New Zealand unlawfully, or has a new visa.

If you breach your sponsorship undertakings (whether there is a debt or not), you may not be able to sponsor again in the future.

Completing the sponsorship form

Unless you are sponsoring a fishing crew under the Foreign Crew of Fishing Vessels instructions or members of the same family applying together under one visitor visa application, you must complete a separate form for each applicant you are sponsoring.

Foreign crew of fishing vessels

If you are New Zealand employer sponsoring a foreign crew of a fishing vessel as a condition of an approval in principle, you must list all the sponsored crew members at Section B: Foreign crew of fishing vessel. You do not need to complete Section A: Applicant's details.

Signing the declaration

When you have completed sections A to E of the form (and, if necessary, your bank has completed Section F: Bank confirmation), you must take the form and the evidence you are providing to a person authorised to take a statutory declaration, and complete Section G: Declaration by sponsor with them. Justices of the Peace, solicitors or notaries public are authorised to take a statutory declaration.

When your statutory declaration has been completed, return the form with your evidence to the applicant.

About the information you provide

Deciding whether you are eligible to be a sponsor

The information about you on this form is collected to determine your eligibility to be a sponsor of an applicant for temporary entry to New Zealand.

The main recipient of the information is Immigration New Zealand but it may also be shared with other Government agencies, which are entitled to the information under applicable legislation.

Collecting this information is authorised by the Immigration Act 2009 and the Immigration Regulations made under that Act. You do not have to provide the information, but if you do not then the sponsored person's visa application may be declined.

You are able to ask for the information we hold about you and have any of it corrected if you think it is necessary. The address of Immigration New Zealand is PO Box 1473, Wellington 6140, New Zealand. This is not where the application should be sent.

Health and disability services

Temporary entry class visa holders generally are not eligible for publicly-funded health and disability services. People covered by New Zealand's Reciprocal Health Agreements with Australia and the UK are entitled to publicly funded health care for immediately necessary medical treatment only.

We strongly recommend that visitors, students and workers have comprehensive health insurance for the duration of their stay. For more information, visit the Ministry of Health website at www.health.govt.nz.
